

Prof POJ Lebba inaugurated the National Seminar on Disaster Management 2017 on August 21st at MESCE Kuttippuram. He could insist the students to understand the manmade disasters and how to avoid these by ensuring the rules and regulations. Principal Dr V A Sonny mentioned about the importance of conducting these kind of seminars in educating students and society. Director Dr. K P Mohammed explained the safety measures to be taken care of in construction and in industries to ensure the safety of labors. Dr. Syed Jalaludeen shah gave an introduction about the seminar and its importance in current scenario.

Mr. Bibhuthi Bhusan Gadnayak , Coordinator , UNICEF discussed about the preparedness , Mitigation measures related to Flood and Hurricane Management in Assam, Orissa and in African Countries.

Dr. Sue McNeil , Professor and Chair University of Delaware USA explained the importance of doing research in Resilience related to Hurricane and Flood, based on her experience in this area.

Dr. Santhosh kumar, KERI, Peechi delivered a nice introduction about trauma care and Dr. Sasidharan Sreedharan , HoD Computer Science, MESCE could deliver a talk on Man-Made Disasters in the Past, Present and its Remedial Measures.

Dr Girish Gopinath Scientist, CWRDM Calicut could deliver a talk on use of GIS in disaster management , Dr Vijayan Principal Idukki could demonstrate the steps taken in construction of cost effective Non conventional bridges in many places of Kerala and its importance in the case of disasters. Dr.N. Shajil Asso.Professor, MESCE could deliver a talk on necessary standards and codal provisions in Construction of Earthquake Resistant Structures in India. Dr. Midhun Mohan Asst.Professor, MESCE could explain about the preparedness in transportation during disasters. Dr CK Raju could explain the advances in Science and Technology and its applications in disaster Management. Mr. Sobin CC demonstrated advances in technology related to communication for the easy access to people during disasters.

Students from MESCE Kuttippuram, NIT Calicut, NIT Rourkela, Vidhya Academy of Science & Technology Thrissur, NSS Engineering College Palakkad, Sreepathy Institute of Science and Technology Vavanoor , Royal Engineering College Akkikavu presented papers in this Seminar. The seminar concluded on 26th Saturday.